CONCERT A SUCCESS.

The Glee Club Greatly Pleased Its Newtown Audience.

The following account of the concert at Newtown on Dec. 16 is from the Newtown Bee for Friday, Dec. 23:

The oft-repeated slander that Newtown people will not support a first-class entertainment was effectually put down, last Friday night, when an audience turned out that completely filled the town hall to enjoy the fine concert of the Trinity College Glee and Mandolin Club, who appeared under the auspices of the Men's Club. The gross receipts of the concert were $104, leaving a balance of about $28. The concert opened with the selections by Mr. Baker, the pianist, who, in spite of some mannerisms, made a favorable impression from the start. His group of three pieces by Nevin, Chaminade and Schumann were happily chosen. Nevin, who came into notice by his celebrated "Narcissus" sketch, and Chaminade, the prolific French composer, are among the recent pianoforte writers, while Schumann, who died in 1856, is not in the same class. His "Nachtstucke," the C number of the group, was performed most sympathetically by the pianist. Mr. Baker is a warm player and you must listen to him. In part second he played with beautiful effects of light and shade Tausig's arrangement of Schubert's Military March. Being recalled, he gave the same virtuoso's arrangement of a Strauss waltz, an exceedingly difficult composition. For this Mr. Baker's technique was ample, the stupendous octave passages were brought out with great power and one could hardly help wishing that a concert grand was not in evidence. The Glee Club is fortunate in having the assistance of such a pianist. The club sang in excellent voice, and their selections were well chosen. They were enthusiastically encored at every appearance. The Mandolin Club was received with marked approval. The only criticism heard in regard to the concert was that the program was not so long as was expected by many, which in a way may be considered a compliment to the boys that their hearers were eager for more. The members of the clubs, through the generosity of local citizens were entertained free of expense at the homes of residents of the Street and vicinity.

Reopening of College.

After a recess of three weeks, college was reopened on Tuesday, the 10th, with service in the chapel at 5.45 in the afternoon. The services were conducted by President Luther, assisted by Rev. Cranston Brenton. Most of the undergraduates were present, as well as a goodly representation of the faculty. The regular college work was resumed on Wednesday morning.

College Notes.

H. S. Smart, ex-'06, will soon enter the Sophomore class at Yale.

The Freshman basket-ball team was defeated at Wallingford the Saturday before vacation by the Choate school team, the score being 23 to 21.

Rhodes, '05, is at the Hartford hospital, receiving care for a light case of measles, which developed shortly after his return from his vacation. He is doing very well and probably will be at college again shortly.

On Christmas day President Luther preached at the Church of the Holy Cross, Troy, N. Y., at the 60th anniversary of the opening of the church, and of the introduction of the choral service into the United States.

GRIDIRON AND DIAMOND

Discussion Favoring Change of Football Rules—Yale's New Football Coach.

William L. Lush, left fielder of the Cleveland American league baseball team, and for two seasons coach of Trinity teams, has been engaged to coach the Yale nine the coming season. Lush will be regular professional coach, and will have charge of the work in the cage during the winter months. According to the present outlook Yale's greatest weakness this year will be in the box. Jackson and Bell, last year's substitute pitchers, are, with the exception of Captain Bowman, the most promising candidates for pitcher.

Mr. Camp's suggestion that the five-yard distance to be made in three downs be changed to ten yards will be hardly acted upon at the coming meeting of the Rules Committee, as the general sentiment of the experts seems to be in favor of maintaining the present rule. Mr. Camp has, according to the newspapers, "promised to bring up a matter before the Rules Committee that he will urge as a good suggestion, the placing of numbers either by sewing them onto the backs of the players' jerseys or jackets, or by painting them on, each number to be that worn all season by the football player. Then the public, that perhaps is not conversant enough with the appearance of an athlete, could distinguish by his number the player, no matter in what kind of a scrimmage he might get."

Mr. George H. Brooke has been offered the head coachship of the University of Pennsylvania football team for the 1905 season. Mr. Brooke was fullback on the '93, '94, '95 Pennsylvania teams, and is considered one of the greatest fullbacks in the history of the game. Mr. Brooke has announced that, if he accepts, he will adopt the same policy pursued so successfully at Pennsylvania during the 1904 season.

"Big Bill" Reid, the coach of the winning 1901 Harvard team, has been asked to take charge again for the coming season.

The Track Season.

Captain Remsen has announced that the candidates for the track team will begin training this year on January 23. This is earlier than ever before; last year they started on Feb. 20, but as this year's schedule is longer, the men will need the additional practice. The practice for the first few weeks will be light, consisting of calisthenic work under the direction of Mr. Velte.

Pres. Luther addressed the West Side Workingmen's Club Wednesday night on "The Men of 1925."

SECOND GERMAN.

Last Evening's Social Event a Success.

The second german of the year was given by the Trinity College German Club in Alumni Hall last evening. The hall was tastefully decorated for the event. The leaders were Hill Burgwin, Jr., of Pittsburg, with Miss Claghorn; and Paul Butterworth of New York, with Miss Whittlesey. Owing to press of collegiate work, Harold G. Hart of Hartford, who was to have led the first half, was unable to be present, Mr. Burgwin taking his place. The favors consisted of small brass toasts, pictures, tea cups and saucers, skulls, Japanese fans, horses, snakes, umbrellas, deer, and other pretty souvenirs. The prize round was one of Paul Ford's novels for the ladies and a stein for the men. Those in attendance were: Patronesses, Mrs. F. S. Luther and Mrs. C. L. Edwards; R. M. Ewing, with Miss Taylor; C. H. Pelton, with Miss Irwin; C. F. Clement, with Miss St. John; C. E. Gostenhofer, with Miss Elizabeth Hubbard; W. H. Licht, with Miss Welling; F. C. Hinkle, with Miss Wander; H. G. Barbour, with Miss Frisbie; D. M. Fackler, with Miss Alice Dunham; T. M. Marlor, with Miss Sanford; W. R. Cross, with Miss Toy; C. R. Hardcastle, with Miss Williams; P. R. Butterworth, with Miss Whittlesey; Hill Burgwin, Jr., with Miss Claghorn; J. H. Kelso Davis, with Miss Helen Jackson of Middletown; M. S. Dravo, with Miss Allen; stags, J. McA. Johnson, P. C. Bryant, C. L. Trumbull.

Jan. 15—7.45 a. m., corporate communion, Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Feb. 1—Christmas examinations begin.

Feb. 11—Christmas examinations end.

Brooklyn Y. M. C. A.

On Thursday, Jan 5, our basket-ball team played the Central Y. M. C. A. of Brooklyn in Brooklyn, and were defeated by a score of 41 to 14. The game was played unexpectedly, and neither Landerfeldt nor Powell were in the line-up. When it was found that the game was scheduled in vacation an attempt was made to cancel it, but owing to a misunderstanding this was not done, and the team was assembled at the last moment. They played a very good game, Duffee's work being particularly brilliant. Our line-up was as follows: r. f., Duffee; l. f., Stevens; c., Bowne; r. g., Madden; l. g., Bulkly. Field goals: Duffee 2, Bowne 1, Madden 1. Foul goals, Duffee 6.

The New Catalogue.

After the usual period of expectancy the patience of the undergraduate body has been rewarded. The new catalogue is out, and it is the best we have seen.

Especially to be commended is the very useful summary of students on Page 31. At last we know exactly how many students there are in college. The arrangement of announcement of requirements for degrees is much superior to that employed in former catalogues. In this connection it may be said that The Tripod is glad to see that henceforth Trinity will only bestow Masters' degrees for work done under the supervision of the faculty. The old rule conferring these degrees for work done in professional schools has gone where it should have gone years ago.

Of course the most radical change in the catalogue is the change of schedule for recitations. The new schedule calls for recitations on Saturday morning until 12.45 o'clock. The old 15-minute period from 9.45 to 10.45 a. m., when so many perfect recitations were formerly prepared, has been abolished. Beginning next year when the new schedule goes into effect, the recitations will all begin at a quarter before the hour. This arrange-ment will close the day's work at a quarter to 4, instead of at 4 o'clock, as formerly.

Besides this change of schedule, there have been many minor changes in the general plan of courses. We would call the attention of the student body to the following changes:

Page 45. Three courses in French and German are required for the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Page 47. The scheme of religious studies has been almost completely changed.

Page 48. There has been a general shake-up in the Philosophy courses, including the addition of one new course, Ph. 3a.

Page 49. History 5 is no longer offered by the History Department.

Page 50. A new course in Greek, Gr. 3a, to be offered in 1906-7. Gr. 8 is no longer catalogued.

Page 51. Similarly we note the disappearance of both Latin 3b and 8.

Page 53. French, 2a, is withdrawn, and a new course, F4, is offered by this department.

Page 55. Sanskrit 2 and Avestan 1 have both been withdrawn from the catalogue.

Page 56. In the Mathematical Department the course in applied mechanics, formerly known as M6, is now replaced by the shop work course under Mr. Stirling. (See Page 57.)

We would also call attention to the rule which is to be found on Page 63. It is somewhat different from its predecessor.

It is pleasing to note that the library committee announces that there are over 48,000 volumes and 29,700 pamphlets in the library. These figures show an increase of over 1400 volumes and 700 pamphlets since the issuing of the catalogue for 1903.

Announcement is also made that a new library fund was founded on Oct. 17, 1904, by J. Ewing Mears of the class of 1858. Dr. Mears has the thanks of the college for his generous act.

Attention is also called to the announcement made on Page 70 in regard to the recently established Psychological Laboratory.

On Page 74 we find a very pleasing announcement that the 79th commencement falls on "Wednesday, the 8th day of June, 1905." Knowing the Faculty and Trustees as well as we do, we feel sure that this is an error, and that the commencement is really on June 28th, 1905.

Under the head of Fellowships, announcement is made of the Mary A. Terry Fellowship, which yields an annual income of about $500. It will be awarded by the President upon the recommendation of the faculty to a member of the graduating class. The incumbent is to hold the Fellowship for one year.

The catalogue is very carefully put together and the above mentioned changes are improvements which ought to bring a general feeling of satisfaction to all concerned.

ALL-AMERICA.

Walter Camp's All-American Football Team.

Mr. Walter Camp, the leading football authority of the country, announced his choice for an All-America team in a recent number of "Collier's Weekly." His team is as follows: Left end, Shevlin, Yale; left tackle, Cooney, Princeton; left guard, Kinney, Yale; center, Tipton, West Point; right guard, Pelsarski, University of Pennsylvania; right tackle, Hogan, Yale; right end, Eckersall, Chicago; quarterback, Stevenson, University of Pennsylvania; left halfback, Heston, Michigan; right halfback, Hurley, Harvard; fullback, Smith, University of Pennsylvania. This gives Yale three members, University of Pennsylvania three, Harvard, Princeton, West Point, Chicago and Michigan one each. The greatest event of the 1904 football season was the regaining of its place among the "Big Four" of the east by the University of Pennsylvania.

ADDITIONAL NOTES.

An excellent picture of President Luther appears in the current number of the Burr MacIntosh Monthly.

Prof. McCook addressed the members of the Bristol Business Men's Association and their friends on "The Tramp Problem," Wednesday evening.

The freshman basketball team was defeated by the five from New Britain high school in the gymnasium on Thursday evening, the final score being 21 to 13. The freshmen lost the game through poor playing in the first half.

It was learned on Wednesday that William H. Lee, 1908, of Shamokin, Pa., will not return to college, he having accepted an excellent position with a mining company in West Virginia. He was quarterback on the football team last fall, and came to college with a reputation as a quarter and half-mile runner of considerable ability.

The following games have been arranged by Manager Stevens of the freshman team: Jan. 10, New Britain high school, at Trinity gymnasium; 19, Wesleyan freshmen at Middletown; 26, Wesleyan freshmen at Hartford; 28, Springfield high school at Springfield; Feb. 11, South Manchester high school at the latter place; 19, New Britain high school at New Britain.

The basket-ball team will play the Brown University five at Providence to-night. The team will probably line up as follows: Forwards, Captain Powell and Duffee; center, Landefeldt; guards, Olmsted and Madden; substitutes, Pond and Stevens. The team is in charge of Manager Buckley.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co.

AN INTERESTING FACT.

On the 1st of March, 1904, THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL reached a stage in its history very interesting to its management and its members and one which is unique in the history of American Life Insurance.

On that date, but little more than fifty-eight years from its organization, it had received from its members in premiums the sum of $228,376,268, and had returned to them or their beneficiaries $228,724,073, or $347,805 more than it had received from them.

The Connecticut Mutual is the first American Life Insurance Company to return to its members one hundred per cent. of its receipt from them. And it holds besides $65,000,000 of assets, with a surplus of over $4,600,000 to protect over 70,000 policy-holders insured for over $166,000,000.
